

St. Louis Recreational Cyclists Annual Meeting on March 10, 2019 Election of Directors

According to the STLRC Bylaws that were ratified in the March 5, 2017 Annual Meeting, “Directors shall be members in good standing of the club. The Board shall consist of nine Directors. The term of each elected Director shall be two years, except when filling an unexpired term of a previously elected Director. To provide better continuity, the election of Directors shall be staggered in the following manner.

- Five Directors will be elected in odd-numbered calendar years.
- Four Directors will be elected in even-numbered calendar years.”

The existing two-year terms of service for five Directors will expire in the 03-10-19 Annual Meeting. Another position on the Board has become vacant due to the recent decision by Billie Teneau to step down from serving as an active Director. Billie was elected in 2018 to serve a two-year term of service that began in 2018 and was scheduled to continue through 2019.

The Board of Directors has nominated the following club members for the above-described six vacancies.

- David Brown
- Pat Cannon
- James Cobb
- Darryl Fabick
- Wayne Marsh
- Barry Rinderknecht

According to the STLRC Bylaws, members may nominate additional members as candidates for the vacant positions, if the nominee has agreed to serve, if elected.

The above-named six nominees will all be listed on one ballot, as well as all other nominees that may be nominated by club members. Such nominees from club members may be made at the time of the election or by submitting the nominee’s name in advance via email to the Board of Directors Secretary, Wayne Marsh.

STLRC members who are present at the 03-10-19 Annual Meeting will be asked to vote for six of the names that are listed on the actual ballot that will be used in the Annual Meeting.

The five candidates who receive the top five number of votes cast will each serve a two-year term of service beginning in 2019.

The one candidate who receives the sixth top number of votes cast will serve a one-year term of service beginning in 2019.

Continuing Directors whose terms of service that will expire at the 2020 Annual Meeting are:

- Patti Brumleve
- John Buck
- Joan Fromme
