

Xenia Area Sightseeing

Shopping and visiting various small towns nearby such as Yellow Springs, Lebanon and Waynesville, Ohio

Golden Lamb Hotel in Lebanon - can look in all of the rooms that past presidents have stayed in.

Warren County History Center (largest display of Shaker artifacts in the country, room reproductions, quilts, pottery collections) in Lebanon

Wegerzyn Gardens MetroPark

1301 E. Siebenthaler Avenue , Dayton, Ohio 45414

(937) 277-6545

Across river from Dayton nice to see on the Dayton bicycle day

AWESOME: Carillon Historic Park in Dayton. On the other side of the river. A historic park - where the Wright Brothers Bicycle store is.

Wonderful presentation of Dayton's history with animated characters.

Number of buildings with transportation displays.

Café, with indoor/outdoor dining and a newer brewery with food (which is of interest to several going this year.)

Glen Helen Nature Preserve near Yellow Springs. Nice walking trails

National Museum of the US Air Force at Wright Patterson AFB.

South of Xenia along the Little Miami River

Caesar Creek State Park—hiking (parking available if you want to ride to Loveland)
Caesar Creek Pioneer Village

Fort Ancient

Ozone Zip line

Frank Lloyd Wright home in Springfield, OH