

Rick Schuchet Accident Update: Many of you may not know this but Rick Schuchet had an accident on Aug.23 on a bike ride. No cars or any other riders were involved. He just veered off of the road into a deep ditch. He has multiple injuries, lots of abrasions, six broken ribs, two neck fractures, along with a back fracture. He'll be wearing a back and neck brace for a while. He is currently at home now recuperating. Please keep him in your thoughts and prayers. We'll try to keep you updated on his healing progress.

9/5/23 – Joe Kruchowski spoke to Rick on the phone. Still will be wearing the back and neck braces during the day. He has to wear them while in the shower also. He said he has to wear a soft collar while he sleeps but he can't get up and move around. The healing process will take time. He has an appointment coming up soon with his regular doctor at Missouri Baptist. He'll be more comfortable with medical people who know his past history. We know Rick will do all he can to rehabilitate from this accident. Keep him in your thoughts and prayers.
